Who We Are

Communities for Recovery is a nonprofit organization providing peer-based recovery supports and services for individuals seeking recovery from substance use or substance use and co-occurring mental health issues. We partner with other community-based organizations to support long-term recovery based on SAMHSA's recovery model. Our motto "Give to Keep" stands for our belief that in order to keep your sobriety, you give it away through sharing their time, talent, and interests. We were launched in 2003 (?) by our late founder J. Scott Thornton and co-founder Dr. William Loving of Texas Star Recovery. We believe that there are many paths to recovery and that a holistic approach is important.

Our programming includes:

- Peer Recovery Coaching
- Volunteer Opportunities
- Resource Center
- Computer Lab
- Career Closet
- Recovery Café
- Community Events
- Educational Workshops
- Recovery Meetings and Groups
- Peer Recovery Coach Institute

NOTES:

Texas Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program
(formerly known as Food Stamps)

SNAP is a Federally funded program that helps low-income families buy nutritious food from local food stores. SNAP assistance is available to qualifying families, elderly people, and single adults. Applicants must reside in Texas and must apply in the county in which they reside.

Apply Online at

<https://www.yourtexasbenefits.com/ssp/SSPHome/ssphome.jsp>

Or visit a local office.

IT'S TRUE! A Texas law went into effect allowing people with felony drug convictions to qualify for the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program. Previously, a drug conviction meant a lifetime ban from food stamps. Supporters hope the change will reduce recidivism and enable felons to better integrate into society. But if they don't stick to the rules, recipients risk losing benefits. Violating terms of their paroles would lead to a two-year disqualification. If they re-offend on drug charges, they face a lifetime ban.

The Central Texas Food Bank can assist you in applying for SNAP, TANF, CHIP, Medicaid, and Healthy Texas Women. This FAQ sheet will answer questions you have about SNAP and the application process.

What is SNAP?

SNAP benefits, the new name for food stamps, can help you buy food at most grocery stores and some farmers' markets.

Benefits are loaded monthly onto the Lone Star Card, which works similarly to a debit or credit card.

Who is eligible to apply?

To find out if you may qualify, call your Food Bank's toll-free and confidential helpline today!

You may qualify if your household's gross monthly income is less than...

	$1,354
	$1,832
	$2,311
	$2,790

For each additional household member add $478

Income guidelines are valid through September 30, 2020. HHSC determines eligibility on a case-by-case basis.

Did you know?

- You can receive SNAP even if you are working, receiving unemployment, or receiving Social Security, as long as your monthly income is below the eligibility limit.
- The average monthly benefit is $120.
- Receiving benefits does not take away from other people's benefits.

How does the application process work?

You can submit an application online via

YourTexasBenefits.com or through the mail.

If you would like help with the application process, you can call the Food Bank helpline or visit our website to make an appointment with one of our Social Services team members. We'll find a convenient time and location to meet with you for 30-45 minutes to complete your application and submit all the required documents to HHSC.

Once we submit your application, HHSC should contact you in 1-2 weeks to set up a phone interview, where they'll complete your application by asking you about any additional information they need about your case. HHSC has 30 days to make a decision on your case after receiving your application.

The Central Texas Food Bank can tell you if you might be eligible, answer your questions, and help you apply!

ECHO-Coordinated Assessment Per Echo, the Coordinated Assessment is a chance for you to let multiple programs know that you are looking for housing right now and would like some help. You will get the chance to see which types of programs you are eligible for, and to choose which program seems best able to meet your needs. This is not a housing waitlist or a housing application, and it’s possible and likely that the programs you are interested in will not have any current openings. Whether there is an opening or not, we will still send these programs your information, and you should keep working on your housing as hard as you possibly can. We will ask them to contact you when they do have an opening to see if you still need help.	Complete the Assessment at one of the following organizations: Goodwill of Central Texas-Assessments: 1015 Norwood Park Blvd Austin, TX 78753 Monday - Thursday – 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Southeast Health & Wellness Clinic 2901 Montopolis Dr. Monday- Friday – 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.
